showing any appreciable number of consecutive years, and was utilised for feeding the poor and the needy and for defraying Father Coleman's charges when he had so received.

Several letters on the subject, addressed by this office to the Trustees of the Estate, remain unreplied and it is a point for consideration whether this Govt should take the initiative and address the Authorities in Calcutta, through the Residency, to pay any contribution at all every year. It is for kind consideration whether it will not be enough for this Govt to arrange for the distribution of alms & the performance of services only when funds therefor are received from the Estate, exclusive of His the late Prince Ghulam Mahomed Sahib's fee or dues.
